

Howard Thurman: The Growing Edge

Introductory Open Session: Sunday, March 3rd, 2-4pm

Ten-week class: Monday Evenings, March 11 - May 13, 2013

- Join us to learn about the life and legacy of an inspiring mystic & visionary
- Explore key themes in his writing & apply them to your own spiritual journey
- Experience rare audio and video recordings of Dr. Thurman
- Expand your own “Growing Edge”

Dr. Howard Thurman was a guide and mentor for Martin Luther King Jr. and other leaders of the Civil Rights Movement. His work speaks directly to today’s personal and social issues, highlighting the powerful connection between spirituality and social transformation. Dr. Thurman co-founded the nation’s first interracial interfaith congregation.

When: Monday evenings, March 11 - May 13, 2013 • 7:00 - 10:00 PM

Where: East Bay Church of Religious Science, 4130 Telegraph Ave., Oakland

Tuition for Classes: $250 (payment plans & partial scholarships available)

Text: For the Inward Journey: The Writings of Howard Thurman, edited by Anne Spencer Thurman. Friends United Press ($24). Will be available for purchase at class.

Instructor: Dr. Liza J. Rankow is an interfaith minister and the founding director of OneLife Institute. She regularly teaches classes on Thurman in community and academic settings, and is producer / co-editor of the six-CD audio collection, “The Living Wisdom of Howard Thurman.”

Register at the East Bay Church or for more info email: classes@onelifeminstitute.org

www.ebcrs.org / www.onelifeminstitute.org